PURPOSE: The purpose of this Order is to establish the procedures for department employees to file a written grievance.

This Order consists of the following numbered sections:

- I. POLICY
 - II. DEFINITION
 - III. PROCEDURES
- I. POLICY
- A. It is the policy of the Port Washington Police Department to provide employees with the opportunity to resolve their grievances with department administration equitably and effectively, and to respond to all grievances in accordance with applicable labor agreements, state statutes and department policy.
- II. DEFINITION
- A. GRIEVANCE: Is a formal complaint against the employer, in written format, usually filed by a union steward on behalf of a member of the local union. It is typically understood as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the collective bargaining agreement regarding wages, hours, working conditions, or a breach of the current labor agreement that is in effect, but it can also concern violations of common law, such as workplace safety regulations or a human rights violation.

III. PROCEDURES

A. Initiating a grievance – Represented Employees

1. Represented employees who disagree with an administration practice that directly impacts wages, hours or working conditions, may initiate a grievance in accordance with the procedures of their respective labor agreements.
